Minimum of 15 and a maximum of 20 students
Club and group courses and be arraigned by request

The intermediate course provides you with the opportunity to experience one of Adelaide's interesting venues previously restricted to motorcycles. This is an ideal course for road riders who are at an intermediate skill level. The course also caters for those riders who are seeking a reintroduction to motorcycling. Also those riders seeking to make a transition from a 250cc to a larger capacity motorcycle.

The course consists of both theory and practice in areas such as basic motorcycle maintenance, cornering, braking, and street strategies. The riding basics are not forgotten, as attention is paid to body positioning, throttle control and eye direction.

Roadcraft+ specialises in small group training with a maximum of 7 students per instructor, therefore you are assured minimum waiting time and maximum contact time with our professional instructors.

\ Your motorcycle must be fully registered and in a roadworthy condition. You must hold a current motorcycle licence suitable for the capacity of the motorcycle you are riding. Suitable clothing and an approved helmet is a prerequisite.*
