“An MRA Supported Event”

Superbike Ride February 28th 2010

The ride that was originally organised for the end of the month has changed due to the amount of rides that have gone down south already this month. The idea is still to leave from the original location at the BP at Belair departing at 10:00am so start arriving by 9:30am.

However the ride will now weave a course over the hills to various locations and ending up at Mt Barker at the local tavern where it has been organised to have lunch there and also be able to watch the first round of the world superbikes from Phillip Island. Please call Jim if you are interested in coming so he can have some numbers to let the manager of the tavern now.

Even if you can't make the ride but still want to attend all welcome.

For any more details you can call Jim on mob 0411285097.

Please have a full tank of fuel to start!
